

Happy New Year!

From Brent, Gaby, & Sam Harris

We send our greetings to you from Stuttgart Germany! We are living in the house that Gaby grew up in, so to her it is really like being home. We are really enjoying our life here and we know that this is where we ought to be right now.

We've been here now for 3 months and are planning on staying here for another 8 or 9 Months (at least). We will be having another baby in February (they say on the 28th), and then we would want to give it a couple of months before we jump into something else.

As we've been talking about our future, we've considered a number of possibilities. It seems that we're leaning toward remaining here in Germany and keeping on ministering to the people here. We know that the Lord has good works that He has before-hand ordained that we should walk in them, and our primary objective is to do just that. To walk in those good works that He has planned for us to do. Right in the center of His will is where we will be. So right now we're taking the time to hear from the Lord about exactly what our next steps are to be.

We're also going to start getting involved in a really good church here in Stuttgart. It's called "BGG" (which stands for "Biblical Beleiving Church"). It's got about 4000 members and it's growing. Up until now we've been just attending the church and receiving from the good preaching there.

As we left Lörrach, we knew that God would be giving us another promotion. After all, we know He is a God that always promotes them that follow and obey Him. And sure enough, it has really been a promotion for us in coming here to Stuttgart. We realize how blessed we are right now in many different areas of our life. And we're very grateful for His goodness to us.
