✕ Visiting the States! ✕

We've just purchased tickets to fly to the States! We're probably just as excited as the grand-parents, who'll finally get to meet our little Joy Annabell (4 1/2 months old)! The reason we just recently decided to come to the States is not just to visit Mom & Dad though. We wouldn't probably plan a long trip like this with our two little kids just for fun right now. But when we got Joy dedicated at Rhema Bible Church in Bonn a couple of weeks ago, we had a good talk with John & Michelle Grunewald (pastors & directors of Rhema Germany). They would love for us to come join the team, but can't offer us a paid position right now. So we have considered various options such as starting a business, working a normal job, and other grand ideas to support our ministry... But we keep coming back to the same conclusion: Time is precious!! So in order to be able to give ourselves fully to what God has called us to, we need to be on Full-Support as Missionaries. We have peace about this being our next step and are really excited about the greater influence we'll be having at Rhema. As part of the Rhema Germany team, we will be involved in Childrens' Ministry, the Media Department, as well as teaching in the 2nd year Bible-School classes. (Continued on page 3)
