Family Update

Ever since we (Brent & Gaby) met and married in Sweden in 1997, our heart and mission has been to "Seek first His kingdom"! Our endeavor has always been to be where He wants us to be.

The Mission continues...

Ever since we (Brent & Gaby) met & married in Sweden in 1997, our heart and mission has been to "Seek first His kingdom"! Our endeavor since then has always been to follow His plan for our lives & to be where He wants us to be. So that is what we have been doing pretty much since the day we said "I do"! :))

Little did we know what a journey we were about to embark on and how this journey would take us to many different places... Sweden, Germany, USA, back to Germany... Along the way we had many valuable experiences as we were serving Him. Last year the journey has taken us back to the States (Vida, MT).

From Germany to the USA - from Vida to Terry

This was quite the change & an adjustment needless to say (especially for Gaby and the kids). ;)

But we knew that it was the right thing and are very grateful how things turned out and how He always leads us to the right place at the right time. He is our Shepherd and He knows what we need. So this past year we followed peace and moved to Montana for a Sabbatical & to get direction for the future.

We lived close to Brent's family (about 15 miles) & the kids went to a small Country School (with about 15 kids), which was perfect for them for starters. They did great switching from the German school system (all in Germany, of course) to the American one.

Family update

We are very grateful! But the journey is far from over. This was but another step along the way :)

Just recently God opened up another ministry door for us that we are really excited about. It is just a bit too early to get into details yet (we will let you know once things are more settled).

So, as we are patiently waiting for His timing, we had peace about moving to Terry, MT for the winter... Brent took a job in Glendive, MT (trucking, which He enjoys) for a while and to get geared up for what is ahead. We love it here and are excited about what God has for us / the things ahead.

Last but not least, we want to make sure to let you know HOW MUCH WE APPRECIATED each & every one of you that have stood with us, loved & prayed for us and have been such a support to us. THANK YOU - THANK YOU - THANK YOU for you love, support and faithfulness !!! You will probably never know how much it has meant to us. May God richly bless you!

We realize that our ministry has "shifted" a bit... and don't want anyone to feel "obligated" to keep supporting us. However, just to let you know.... Brent took this job to The ministry we are looking at will not be a paid position and we will continue to be on support & if you have it in your heart to keep supporting us, we would be thrilled. Either way, we are very thankful for EVERYTHING you have done for us. We will keep you posted on what is going on with us. And thanks again! We love you all!
